DESIGN INSPIRATION

Puka Puka - Outdoor is made of recycled polypropylene and recycled polyester according to Global Recycled Standard (GRS). It is a panama fabric suited both for indoor and outdoor made from waste from production from non-woven fabric used to make masks and nappies (offcuts of secondary materials, non-conforming materials), while the second comes from waste or scraps from the production of polyester yarn. The Global Recycled Standard (GRS) is one of the most important organizations that internationally promote responsible and sustainable development in the textile sector. GRS aims to encourage the reduction of resource consumption (virgin raw materials, water and energy) and increased the quality of recycled products.
