DESIGN INSPIRATION

Liserè Jacquard fabric with a small/medium scale design is inspired by the decoration elements derived from the palace of Darius The Great in Susa. Susa, currently called Shush, was the imperial residence of the Persians and a glorious capital of wealth and divination symbols. This pattern is available in 9 fresh and modern colors, but what distinguishes this fabric from other textiles are the different effects of weaving that compose the main design. Fabric suitable for upholstery and drapery works.
