DESIGN INSPIRATION

Poppies are amongst the most symbolic and influential flowering plants in the culture of mankind. They have been used since 6,000 BC and made their way around the world along the Silk Route. On the other hand, the remembrance red poppies are worn to commemorate those who have died in WWI in the Flanders Fields. No matter the perspective, Colony has translated the importance of this flower into a small-scale patterned lampas offered in fresh and luminous colorways.
