DESIGN INSPIRATION

K2 lies in the Karakoram range. It is the second highest mountain in the world and is technically more difficult than Mt. Everest. The summit was first climbed by the Italian climbers Lino Lacedelli and Achille Compagnoni on the 1954 Italian expedition led by Ardito Desio. Named after this mountain, K2 is a soft Trevira CS bouclé, perfect for hospitality, heavy duty contract use. It is washable and is available in a large variety of colorways that complement most fabrics within the Colony line.
