DESIGN INSPIRATION

Odorico is a jacquard fabric featuring an Art Deco pattern that imitates mosaic tiles through a pattern of extremely fine lines on top of a black background. The design was reworked based on a detail from an archive drawing of Maison Leleu's historic Mosaïque rug. The chenille velvet thread creates a raised texture and gives the fabric a beautiful drape. It may also be used with other fabrics from the collection to bring the combination together and create a sense of harmony.
