DESIGN INSPIRATION

Argentinian artist, Sofia Willemoes, was inspired by the landscapes of South America when designing the Tropical Mural. A snapshot of nature is captured in the design with mountain peaks in the background, highlighted by the stillness of water in the foreground. Tranquility and the serene state of the natural world evoke a sense of wellbeing, with evergreen lily pads floating below tall palms reflected in the crystal blue freshwater lakes. This mural is perfect for being showcased in a formal dining room or grand foyer.
