

ZEBRAS PETITE PILLOW

22 X 22 - MASAI RED • SC 0005 PZEBPILL

Printed Fabrics from the Dazzle Collection and Zebras Collection by The House of Scalamandré

WHAT MAKES THIS PILLOW SPECIAL

Originally designed in 1945 for Gino of Capri restaurant, affectionately known as “Gino’s” by New Yorkers, Scalamandré restored the Zebras wallcovering at this iconic Upper East Side establishment in 1973 after the walls were damaged by fire. Flora Scalamandré, wife of Franco Scalamandré, skillfully hand-drew the signature motif, which would later become the renowned Scalamandré Zebras design. This lively pattern depicts two Zebras prancing around politely placed arrows set against a lively colored ground. The playful and captivating design instantly captivated audiences, quickly joining the product line and ultimately achieving fame through appearances in notable films such as Wes Anderson’s “The Royal Tenenbaums”.

Over time, the Zebras design expanded to include a wider range of colors and introduced as a vinyl wallcovering and grasscloth. Additionally, the motif was adapted for fabric use, both indoors and outdoors, with a resized “Zebras Petite” for enhanced versatility, and now even available as an embroidered tape. Zebras has gained immense popularity in the industry and beyond, remaining a highly sought-after and globally recognized design. The House of Scalamandré is proud to partner with Grevy’s Zebra Trust, an independent wildlife conservation trust, to help raise awareness for this urgent cause. In support of their efforts to conserve Grevy’s zebra in the community rangelands of Kenya and Ethiopia, we are pleased to donate a portion of all Scalamandré Zebras sales to GREVY’S ZEBRA TRUST.
