DESIGN INSPIRATION

Reintroduced in 2025, Bois de Flandre is an exquisite reinterpretation of a medieval tradition, exuding Old World grandeur in a linen-rich cut and uncut velvet tapestry. First debuted in 2003 and now masterfully woven in the United States, its 100% linen pile is crafted on a wire loom, creating a nuanced interplay of texture and depth. The allover verdure motif, delicately accented with red berries, is brought to life through the sculptural contrast of cut and uncut velvet—offering a timeless yet contemporary elegance for those who appreciate the rare artistry of historical textiles.
