DESIGN INSPIRATION

Audubon Exotica is an all-over exotic bird pattern with tropical foliage that transports one to a rare world of exotic birds and their habitats. Resplendent Quesals from Panama, Paradisea the Bird-of-Paradise from Venezuela, Momot Superciglioso from Costa Rica, Silfilde from Peru all frolic together in beautiful leaves and unusual colors, as part of our Garden of Eternal Spring Collection of scenic florals and exotic landscapes, with wallpapers and murals depicting contemporary floral and aviary motifs. Nicolette Mayer wallcoverings always recognize and research the influence or importance of its unique history and then reinvent the style and motif with a whimsical contemporary flair and modern colorations. The plants and creatures are represented through light and quick brushstroke-style graphics, with a three-dimensional effect.
