DESIGN INSPIRATION

Prism Dégradé Ombré is an ombré gradient with a subtle linear blending of one color hue to another, typically shifting from light to dark in a seamless gradation of tints and shades. There are four core colorways, but any combination can be customized from any three or four Metallica colors to create a unique gradient.

Prism Dégradé Ombré is part of our Garden of Eternal Spring Collection, featuring wallpapers and murals with contemporary motifs inspired by architecture, tapestries, and chinoiserie. Nicolette Mayer murals celebrate historical influences, reimagining each style with whimsical, contemporary flair and modern colorations. Available with both a solid background and ombré blending from one hue to another, it offers a dynamic transition from light to dark for a striking effect.
